Nov. 30, 2009

- WHAT:            “Stuff the Bus” competition:
Will Metro or TANK collect the most for local food pantries?
- WHEN:           Saturday, Dec. 5, 2009, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- WHERE:            Northern Kentucky (TANK): Meijer-Florence, 4990 Houston Road
Cincinnati (Metro): Kroger Marketplace, Anderson Towne Centre, 7580 Beechmont Avenue

Who’s more generous... Cincinnati or Northern Kentucky?

It’s a cross-river competition to see if Metro or TANK can collect the most non-perishable food items for those in need in our communities.

Bring canned goods, boxed food, paper products and other non-perishable food items to the bus parked by the Anderson Towne Centre Kroger Marketplace or the Florence Meijer store to show your support for your side of the river.

All food collected by TANK will be donated to Be Concerned food pantry in Covington. All non-perishable food items on the Metro bus will be donated to St. Vincent de Paul in Cincinnati.

The Metro-TANK “Stuff the Bus” food drive is in partnership with Q102, B105 and 94.9 Rewind.
